Titolo	Funebria floræ, the Downfall of May-games [[electronic resource]] : wherein is set forth the rudeness, prophaneness, stealing, drinking, fighting, dancing, whoring, mis-rule, mis-spence of precious time, contempt of God, and godly magistrats, ministers and people, which oppose the rascality and rout, in this their open prophaneness, and heathenish customs. Occasioned by the generall complaint of the rudenesse of people in this kinde, in this interval of settlement. Here you have twenty arguments against these prophane sports, and all the cavills made by the belialists of the time, reselled and answered. Together with an addition of some verses in the close, for the delight of the ingenious reader / By Tho. Hall, B.D. and pastor of Kings-norton
