Titolo	Master speakers letter ordered by the Honorable House of Commons, to be sent to the high sheriffe and gentry of Yorkshire [[electronic resource]] : Shewing their dislike of such as have endeavoured to perswade the countrey, that their petition to the parliament was ill relished. Secondly, their dislike of such as have endeavoured to perswade godly ministers, that their exercises are not acceptable to the House. Thirdly, their dislike of such as have endeavoured to perswade the trained band from going into Hull, upon the Parliament order. Also shewing their great acceptation of the Yorkshire petition, and how ready they are to take care for the discharging the billet-money in that county. Likewise the Parliament wondring at the impudencie of those men, who dare to hinder the advancement of the glory of God & of his worship, and also to scandalize the piety of the house into high a measure. Likewise shewing how ready they are to propagate religion, also desiring and enjoying the High Sheriffe, to return the names of all those who have vented these untruths, and diswaded the trained band in Holdernesse, from entering into Hull
