

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996384186503316
Autore	Worldidge John <fl. 1660-1698.>
Titolo	The compleat bee-master; or, A discourse of bees [[electronic resource]] : shewing the best way of improving them, and discovering the fallacies that are imposed by some, for private lucre, on the credulous lovers and admirers of these insects. By J. Worldidge, gent
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : printed for, and sold by G. Conyers, at the Ring in Little-Britain, 1698
Descrizione fisica	[8], 28, [4] p., [1] leaf of plates
Soggetti	Bees Bee culture - England
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Frontipiece plate of beehive beneath a fruit tree. With two final advertisement leaves and contents on p. 28. Another edition of John Worldidge's "Apiarum; or a discourse of bees", London, 1676, reissued with a cancel titlepage. Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018