Note generali	A satire on the loyalty of Tories toward James II. The abdicated bishop is one of the six nonjuring bishops, other than William Sancroft, Archbishop of Canterbury, who is referred to in the letter as "my elder brother". The abdicated King and Queen are James II and Mary of Modena. The second letter is dated at end: New-Years Eve (1690/1). In this edition title has "disguised"; line 3 of text begins: wish; yet. Reproduction of original in the British Library.
