Titolo	The interest of these United Provinces [[electronic resource]] : Being a defence of the Zeelanders choice. Wherein is shewne, I. That we ought unanimously to defend our selves. II. That if we cannot, it is better to be under England than France, in regard of religion, liberty, estates, and trade. III. That we are not yet come to that extremity, but we may remaine a republick. And that our compliance with England is the onely meanes for this. Together with severall remarkes upon the present, and conjectures on the future state of affaires in Europe, especially as relating to this republick. By a wellwisher to the reformed religion, and the welfare of these countries
