

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996385160803316
Titolo	By the King [[electronic resource] ] : Whwhereas [sic] this county, in which (out of our experience of the good affection thereof) we have chosen to make our residence this winter, is in great danger to suffer violence, and to receive losse and damage by the incursions of the rebels, .
Pubbl/distr/stampa	[London, : s.n., 1642]
Descrizione fisica	1 sheet ([1] p.)
Altri autori (Persone)	Charles, King of England, <1600-1649.>
Soggetti	War horses - England Oxford (England) History Early works to 1800 Great Britain History Civil War, 1642-1649 Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	A requisition for horses in order to protect the county of Oxford from Dragoons. Title from caption title and opening words of text. At foot of page, below a rule of 33 ornaments: God save the King. Imprint from Wing. Steele notation: Affection up Case. Reproduction of original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018