

1. Record Nr.

UNISA996385508203316

Titolo

The Last and best newes from Ireland [[electronic resource]] : declaring first the warlike and cruell proceeding of the rebels who are all papists and Jesuits of the kingdome : secondly, the entrance of some English and Scottish companies into the north-parts of Ireland under the command of these foure noblemen : the Lord Grandison, the Lord Chichester, the Lord Conway, the Lord Cromwell, also the late incounters which they have had with those rebels : thirdly, how the rebels would have fired and burnt up the city of Dublin with wild-fire : and likewise the taking of some Irish Lords and other commanders prisoners both of horse and foot : fourthly, divers letters from severall persons of good worth in Ireland touching the cruell proceedings of the rebells to this very day : fifthly, Irelands complaint and Englands reliefe sent by the honorable House of Parliament to ayde and assist their brethren : together with the names of those commanders that are appointed for this religious designe : sixthly, the proclamation made by the lords and justices of Ireland

Pubbl/distr/stampa

London, : Printed for F. Coules and T. Bates, 1641

Descrizione fisica

[8] p

Altri autori (Persone)

WatsonJoseph, Merchant in Dublin

Soggetti

Ireland History Rebellion of 1641

Lingua di pubblicazione

Inglese

Formato

Materiale a stampa

Livello bibliografico

Monografia

Note generali

Illustrated t.p.

Reproduction of original in Thomason Collection, British Library.

Sommario/riassunto

eebo-0158