

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996385676703316
Autore	D. B (Daniel Baker), <fl. 1650-1660.>
Titolo	A clear voice of truth sounded forth, and as an ensign lifted up and displayed [[electronic resource] ] : in answer to the proceedings of the Christians by name in Asia, by way of controversie and expostulation : together with savoury and wholesome admonishments, which may become of good use and profitable to all that read with a single eye, and understand with an upright heart : also the same somewhat tends by way of gentle reproof to their hasty and inequitable proceedings against the innocent servants, messengers and living witnesses of the living and true God : yet with tenderness of an upright heart and spirit (not onely of a free born English-man, but also of a true Christian) from the same hand its principally directed to the Lord Embassasdor (so called) in Constantinople, and to the English Company of Merchants and Factors in Smyrna, with somewhat to the merchants in Genoa, tendred again by way of visitation, and that from God, for them and others in Italy to consider and not reject to their own hurt
Pubbl/distr/stampa	[London, : s.n.], 1662
Descrizione fisica	38 p
Soggetti	Society of Friends
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Signed at end: Daniel Baker. Reproduction of original in Huntington Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0113