

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996385920903316
Titolo	The just reward of a debauched cavallier: or, The wicked and divellish intentions of one Thomas Browne a late cavallier, and now a prisoner in New-gate; [[electronic resource]] : because Redding was yeelded up upon a treaty and composition to the Parliaments forces. For which he hath lately made a contract and articed with the divell, and would have given his soule and body for the enjoymnt of his lust and pleasure for 40. yeares, as in the whole story you may read in this ensuing booke. Which contract and agreement was found in his pocket by the constable and his watch in high Holburne, and being carried before Justice Lowder confessed his divellish intents; for which he was committed to New-gate, and there lyes to receive his tryall according to law, this next sessions in the Old Baily
Pubbl/distr/stampa	[London], : May this 13th. Printed for I. Iackson, 1643
Descrizione fisica	[8] p
Soggetti	Royalists - Great Britain - History - 17th century Demonology - England Great Britain History Civil War, 1642-1649 Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Place of publication from Wing. Annotation on Thomason copy: "May: ye 13". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018