Note generali	The dedication is signed Will. Mountfort, and states that the play was a present to him. It was included in "Six plays written by Mr. Mountfort," 1720, the editor stating that though "not wholly composed by him, he had at least a share in fitting it for the stage." Coxeter states that it was written by John Bancroft and given by him to Mountfort. Cf. DNB; BM (new ed.), and Nicoll, A. History of restoration drama, 1940, p. 158. Published in 1731 under title: The fall of Mortimer. Reviv'd from Mountfort, with alterations. Errata: p. 56. Reproduction of original in Huntington Library.
