

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996386053903316
Titolo	Leycesters common-wealth [[electronic resource]] : conceived, spoken and pvblished with most earnest protestation of all dutifull good will and affection towards this realm : for whose good onely it is made common to many
Pubbl/distr/stampa	[S.l., : s.n.], 1641
Descrizione fisica	[8], 182 p
Altri autori (Persone)	ParsonsRobert <1546-1610.>
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	First published in 1584, with title: The copie of a letter, vvryten by a master of arte at Cambridge, to his friend in London and was popularly known as "Father Parson's green-coat." Does not fully correspond with the first issue described in the Grolier club Catalogue of English writers, or with the two issues described in Burgoyne's edition of 1904 (p. xiv-xv) "Leicester's commonwealth" was republished in 1641 and was versified as "Leicester's ghost" about the same time. Imperfect: frontispiece lacking in filmed copy. Reproduction of original in Thomason Collection, British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0158