

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996386155303316
Autore	Hamilton James Hamilton, Duke of, <1606-1649.>
Titolo	A new declaration set forth by the Lord Gen. Hamilton [[electronic resource]] : wherein is declared, the full resolution of the officers and souldiers in the Scottish army, to the Presbyterians of England, and their resolution to settle the Kings Majesty in his royal throne, and to make him as glorious a prince as ever reigned in Europe. Likewise, the propositions of Sir Marmaduke Langdale, to the Lord Generall, concerning the uniting of the two armies, and a declaration touching the Presbyterians, and the Royalists. Presented to Duke Hamilton upon his entring into England, and the proceedings of the Scottish army thereupon. Also, another army advancing out of Scotland, under the command of Gen. Monroe. And a great fight neer Carlisle, between the two armies, and the number killed and taken
Pubbl/distr/stampa	[London], : Printed at Edenburgh, and re-printed at London, for general satisfaction both of Presbyterians, Royalists, and Independents, 1648
Descrizione fisica	[2], 6 p
Altri autori (Persone)	LangdaleMarmaduke Langdale, Baron, <1598?-1661.>
Soggetti	Great Britain History Civil War, 1642-1649 Early works to 1800 Scotland History Charles, 1625-1649 Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Annotation on Thomason copy: "July 13". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018