

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996386436603316
Titolo	A collection of sundry petitions presented to the Kings Most excellent Majestie [[electronic resource]] : As also to the two most honourable Houses, now assembled in Parliament. And others, already signed, by most of the gentry, ministers, and free-holders of severall counties, in behalfe of episcopacie, liturgie, and supportation of church-revenues, and suppression of schismaticks. Collected by a faithfull lover of the church, for the comfort of the dejected clergy, and all moderately affected Protestants. Published by his Majesties speciall command
Pubbl/distr/stampa	[London], : Printed for William Sheares, 1642
Descrizione fisica	[6], 43, [1] p
Altri autori (Persone)	AstonThomas, Sir, <1600-1645.>
Soggetti	Great Britain History Civil War, 1642-1649 Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Faithfull lover of the Church = Sir William Aston. Place of publication from Wing. In this setting of quire A there is a royal coat of arms on A1v; 'The collector to the reader' is on one leaf (A2), with catchword: ten; there is no 'Index to the petitions'; Quire A is in the same setting as Wing A4073; Cf. R215799 for a different setting of quire A. Imperfect: frontispiece lacking. Last page filmed with Charles I. His Majestie's answer to a book entituled The declaration, or remonstrance. By Robert Barker and the assignes of John Bill, 1642. Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018