

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996386571903316
Autore	Smith William <d. 1673.>
Titolo	The reign of the whore discovered and her ruine seen [[electronic resource] ] : her merchants the priests examined, and with the Romish church (their elder sister) compared and found agreeable in many things ... : some queries also for those people that pay tythes, and priests that receive tythes, to consider and answer : and whereas their cry hath been loud against us the people of God called Quakers, that we are Jesuits, and Jesuitical, in tryal they are found false accusers, and of the same stock and generation themselves ... : also the sustance of a dispute which was the 15th day of the 2d month, called April 1659, at the Bridge-house in Southwark, between VWilliam Cooper, VWilliam VWhitaker, Thomas VWoodsworth, VVieles, Watkins, Cradicut, and others who profess themselves ministers of Christ, and some of the people call'd Quakers ... // written in that which gives to see over all the popish train ... W.S
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed for Thomas Simmons ..., 1659
Descrizione fisica	[2], 38 p
Altri autori (Persone)	BurroughEdward <1634-1662.>
Soggetti	Society of Friends Protestantism
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Attributed to William Smith by NUC pre-1956 imprints. "The following letter containing the substance of the dispute ..." signed: Edward Burrough. Item at reel 1546:2 identified as Wing B6020 (number cancelled). Reproduction of originals in the Huntington Library and Edinburgh University Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0113