

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996386607403316
Titolo	The French king's decree against Protestants, prohibiting them the exercise of their religion, &c [[electronic resource] ] : to which is added a brief and true account of the cruel persecution and inhumane oppressions of those of the reformed religion to make them abjure and apostatize : together with the form of abjuration the revolting Protestants are to subscribe and swear to, and a declaration of his Electoral Highness of Brandenburg ... : also a letter from Father La Chese ... to Father Petre ... // newly translated from the French
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed for the author and sold by the booksellers of London and Westminster, 1689
Descrizione fisica	40 p
Altri autori (Persone)	Friedrich Wilhelm, Elector of Brandenburg, <1620-1688.> La ChaiseFrancois d'Aix de <1624-1709.> Louis, King of France, <1638-1715.>
Soggetti	Protestants - France Freedom of religion - France
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Revocation of the edict of Nantes, dated October 22, 1685. Reproduction of original in Huntington Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0113