

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996386958403316
Autore	Horn John <1614-1676.>
Titolo	Truth's triumph over deceit, or, A further demonstration that the people called Quakers be deceivers, and such as people ought to accompt accursed in their doctrines and principles [[electronic resource] ] : in vindication of a former proof of that charge, made good against them, from the sorry shifts and evasions from it, and cavils of George Whitehead against it, in a pamphlet of his, called The Quakers no deceivers // written by John Horne ... as a further preservation of people from following any of their pernicious principles .
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed for J. Allen ..., 1660
Descrizione fisica	52 p
Soggetti	Society of Friends Dissenters, Religious - England
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Imperfect: stained, wormholed, and with print show-through. "Eight queries propounded to Richard Hubberthorne, by John Horne"--p. 43-52. Reproduction of original in the Bodleian Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0014