

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996387035103316
Titolo	The Lord Merlins prophecy concerning the King of Scots [[electronic resource]] : foretelling the strange and wonderfull things that shall befall him in England. As also, the time and manner of a dismal and fatall battel; the event and success thereof: a great blowe to be given, and the Northern Chicken inforced to flie to forraign countries for aid & succour. Also, King James his dream. and Queen Ann's prophecy touching the King, and the redusing of England, Scotland, and Ireland from monarchy. With the Lady Sybilla's prophecy, touching the destroying of the nobility, and what shall afterwards befall this nation in government and discipline. Likevwise, the prophecy of Paul Grebner (a German) concerning Charles son of Charles the Emp: foretelling his greatness and victorious conquests. Presented to Queen Elizabeth anno 1582. and recorded in the library of Trinity Colledge in Cambridge, by Dr. Nevill, clerk of her Majesties closet
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed by J.C. for G. Horton, 1651
Descrizione fisica	[2], 14 p
Altri autori (Persone)	GrebnerPaul
Soggetti	Prophecies Great Britain History Civil War, 1642-1649 Prophecies Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Annotation on Thomason copy: "Aug: 22". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018