Autore	Penington Isaac <1616-1679.>
Titolo	The way of life & death made manifest, and set before men [[electronic resource] ] : Whereby the many paths of death are impleaded, and the one path of life, propounded, and pleaded for. In some positions concerning the apostacy from the Christian spirit and life. With some principles guiding out of it. As also an answer to some objections, whereby the simplicity in some may be entangled. Held forth in tender good will both to papists & protestants, who have generally erred from the faith for these many generations, since the days of the apostles; and with that which they have erred from, are they comprehended. // By Isac Pennington the younger
