

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996387074803316
Autore	Wake William <1657-1737.>
Titolo	Three tracts against popery. Written in the year MDCLXXXVI. By William Wake, M.A. student of Christ Church, Oxon; chaplain to the right honourable the Lord Preston, and preacher at S. Ann's Church, Westminster [[electronic resource]]
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : printed for Richard Chiswell, at the Rose and Crown in S. Paul's Church-Yard, MDCLXXXVII. [1687]
Descrizione fisica	[6], xxxvi, 87, [7], xxiv, [2], 166, [6], xxxviii, [6], 127, [1] p
Soggetti	Lord's Supper - Real presence Transubstantiation
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	There is a rule over the roman numeral dates on the title page. "An exposition of the doctrine of the Church of England, .. The third edition."; "A defence of the Exposition of the doctrine of the Church of England,"; "A discourse of the Holy Eucharist," each have separate title pages dated 1687, 1686, and 1687, respectively, and separate pagination and register; each has been published separately with Wing entries W244, W236, and W240. Each tract has an initial imprimatur leaf and a table of contents; the first and third tract have a final advertisement page; the second tract includes "Appendix containing a collection of the following pieces." which has a separate dated title page and bibliography, and with the register and pagination continuous from the second tract.; the second tract also includes errata at the end of its text. Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018