

|                         |  |
|-------------------------|--|
| 1. Record Nr.           | UNISA996387113503316   |
| Autore                  | Wastfield Robert <fl. 1647-1665.>  |
| Titolo                  | The great obiection concerning the Quakers meetings fully answered[[electronic resource] ] : Wherein, in several particulars, it is proved, thatalthough the said people do meet together, yet they are nottransgressors of the law, according to right reason, which is the groundand foundation thereof; and therefore according to equity and goodconscience, ought not to suffer for so doing, neither ought theirmeetings to be suppress. By a lover of all righteous laws, and justgovernment, and one unto whom such laws are not a terror, R.W |
| Pubbl/distr/stampa      | [London, : s.n., 1662]   |
| Descrizione fisica      | [2], 6 p   |
| Soggetti                | Quakers  |
| Lingua di pubblicazione | Inglese  |
| Formato                 | Materiale a stampa   |
| Livello bibliografico   | Monografia   |
| Note generali           | R.W. = Robert Wastfield.Imprint from Smith.Imperfect: title page faded with loss of text; text cropped at headaffecting paging.Reproduction of the original in the British Library.  |
| Sommario/riassunto      | eebo-0018  |