

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996387155403316
Autore	Grascome Samuel <1641-1708?>
Titolo	An appeal of murther from certain unjust judges, lately sitting at the Old Baily [[electronic resource]] : to the righteous judge of heaven and earth; and to all sensible English-men, containing a relation of the tryal, behaviour, and death of Mr. William Anderton, executed June 16. 1693. at Tyburn, for pretended high treason
Pubbl/distr/stampa	[London, : s.n., 1693]
Descrizione fisica	41, [1] p
Soggetti	Trials (Treason) - England Execution and executioners Sedition, England Printers - England Printing - England - History
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	By Samuel Grascome. Caption title. Discusses the trial of William Anderton, tried for high treason, after being accused of printing two pamphlets: "Remarks upon the present confederacy and the late revolution in England" and "A French conquest neither desirable nor practicable". He was sentenced to death and executed at Tyburn on June 16th, 1693. -- Cf. Plomer. Includes "To the Right Honourable Sir John Fleet, Lord Mayor of the City of London, and the rest of the commissioners for the Goal delivery of Newgate. The humble petition of William Anderton a convicted prisoner in Newgate.". Reproduction of the original in the Christ College Library, Oxford.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0026