Note generali	A pirated miscellany, mostly not by Shakespeare. The "two love epistles" and other matter are reprinted from: Heywood, Thomas. Troia Britanica. In verse. On title page, the edition statement is printed after "augmented". Signatures: A-H. The first leaf and the last leaf are blank. "Sonnets to sundry notes of musicke" has separate title page with imprint "At London printed by W. Iaggard. 1612."; register is continuous. Quires A-C are printed on rectos only. Variant: with an additional title page lacking Shakespeare's name, probably intended as a cancel. Reproduction of the original in the Bodleian Library. Some print faded and show-through, and some pages stained.
