

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996387481803316
Autore	Crook John <1617-1699.>
Titolo	[O thriambos tes aletheias] [[electronic resource] ] : Truth's triumph; or, The day of the Lord broken forth, to the discovery of deceit, deceivableness, though never so secretly acted in the dark, or, something added in reply to Fra. Holcraft his six sheets of paper, wherein his spirit is unmask'd, and his bitterness and unchristian-like expressions laid before him (and others), that if possible he may be sensible of his folly, and repent of all his hard speeches and blasphemies against God, his truth and people // by a sufferer for the truth, and servant of Jesus Christ, Iohn Crooke
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London printed, : [s.n.], the 12th month of the year, 1664
Descrizione fisica	[4], 20 p
Soggetti	Society of Friends - England
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Title transliterated from Greek. Wing C7223 is cancelled in Wing 2nd ed. Reproduction of originals in the Bevan-Naish Collection and the Friends' Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0216