

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996387557403316
Autore	Whetstone George <1544?-1587?>
Titolo	The enemie to vnthryftinesse [[electronic resource]] : publishing, by lawes, documents and disciplines. A right rule, for reformation of pride, and other prodigall and riotous disorders, in a common wealth: for the worthines of directions, a perfect mirroure for all maiestrates: (especially) of cities. And for sound counsels, and admonitions, a carde to compasse, or euery yong gentleman, honorable and profitably to gouerne his actions. Partely, drawne out of the sage gouernme[n]t, of the most worthie emperour, Alexander Seuerus: and (generallye) discoueringe the vnsufferable abuses now raining in our happie English co[m]mon wealth. By George Whetstons gent
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Printed at London, : By Richard Jones, Anno 1584 [i.e. 1586]
Descrizione fisica	[4], 36 leaves
Altri autori (Persone)	Severus Alexander, Emperor of Rome, <208-235.>
Soggetti	Social problems Social problems - England
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Actual date of publication from STC. Leaves 25 and 26 misnumbered 75 and 78. G2 is a separate title page, undated, with same imprint, reading: An addition: or touchstone for the time: exposyng the daingerous mischiefes, that the Dicyng howses (co[m]monly called) ordinarie tables, and other (like) sanctuaries of iniquitie, do dayly breede: within the bovvelles of the famous citie of London. By George Whetstones, gent. Running title reads: A mirour for magistrates of cities. Another issue (with A1-[par.] cancelled, and new title page and date) of STC 25341, published in 1584 with title: A mirour for magestrates of cyties. Identified as STC 25335 on UMI microfilm. Some print faded and show-through; some pages stained. Reproduction of the original in the British Library.

