

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996387677103316
Titolo	The Byble, that is to saye, all the Holye Scripture [[electronic resource]] : in whiche are contayned the Olde and New Testament / / truly and purely translated into Englishe, & now lately with great industry & diligence recognysed
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Imprynted at London, : By Robert Toye, dwellynge in Paules Churchyard, at the sygne of the Bell, vi. day of Maye, M.D.LI. [7 May 1551]
Descrizione fisica	[40], cxii [i.e. 224], clv [i.e. 310], cxc [i.e. 380], cxlix [i.e. 294], [2] p
Altri autori (Persone)	RogersJohn <1500?-1555.>
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	"Here endeth the whole Byble after the translacion of Thomas Matthew ..."--Colophon. "In 1537 a revised English Bible known as "Matthew's Bible" appeared. ... The ascription to "Thomas Matthew" was nominal ... its real editor being John Rogers"--Oxford Dictionary of the Christian Church. "The seconde parte", "The thirde parte" and "The Newe Testament" each have special t.p. and separate pagination. "Imprynted at London by Nicolas Hyl, for Roberte Toye, dwellynge in Paules Churchyard at the sygne of the Bell"--Colophon. "Cum gracia et priuilegio ad imprimendum solum." Signatures: a * [par.] A-O a-t v ³ 2a-2z 2& 3A-3S 3T. Pages numbered on recto only. Numerous errors in paging. Title within illustrated border. Marginal notes. Imperfect: torn with slight loss of print. "Apocrypha lacking; signatures AA-NN from second British Library copy spliced at end"--Reel guide. Reel guide erroneously lists this item as being on reel 1763. Reproduction of original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018

