Titolo	Some particulars on the truths behalfe in love to the inhabitants of Newcastle [[electronic resource] ] : which may concern many other parts of this nation. This is given forth in answer to a false alarum sounded forth by a blind watch-man named Samuel Hammond, a chiefe priest of Newcastle ... but his spirit is tryed, and seen to be a false spirit ... who in stead of warning people against their enemies; hath warned them against the truth, and such as be in it. // For the clearing of whom, this was given forth by George VVhithead
