

|                         |                                                                                                                                                     |
|-------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. Record Nr.           | UNISA996387761603316                                                                                                                                |
| Titolo                  | A proclamation to reforme the disorder in accesse of greater number of persons to the court, then haue iust cause so to doe [[electronic resource]] |
| Pubbl/distr/stampa      | [London], : By the deputies of Christopher Barker, printer to the Queenes most excellent Maiestie, [1593]                                           |
| Descrizione fisica      | 1 sheet ([1] p.)                                                                                                                                    |
| Altri autori (Persone)  | Elizabeth, Queen of England, <1533-1603.>                                                                                                           |
| Soggetti                | Plague - EnglandEngland Court and courtiers Early works to 1800England Proclamations Early works to 1800                                    |
| Lingua di pubblicazione | Inglese                                                                                                                                             |
| Formato                 | Materiale a stampa                                                                                                                                  |
| Livello bibliografico   | Monografia                                                                                                                                          |
| Note generali           | Place of publication and publication date from STC.Reproduction of the original in the Bodleian Library.                                        |
| Sommario/riassunto      | eebo-0014                                                                                                                                           |