

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996387970003316
Titolo	The declaration and propositions of his Excellency the Lord Generall Leven, and divers other eminent commanders of the standing army in the kingdom of Scotland; [[electronic resource]] : to the Parliament assembled at Edinburgh, concerning the dis-ingaging of a war with England; as also, touching the Parliament, and army. Likewise, the progresse of the Scots army under the command of the Earl of Calender, with their approach neer the confines of England. And the gallant preparations of Sir Arthur Haslerig, governour of Newcastle. Also, a declaration of the Parliaments army in the kingdome of Ireland, under the command of Colonell Iones, concerning the Lord Inchiquin's dissenting the Parliament of England, and declaring for the King. April 20. 1648. Imprimatur Gilb. Mabbott
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed for R.W., MDCXLVIII.[1648]
Descrizione fisica	[2], 6 p
Altri autori (Persone)	R. S R. G
Soggetti	Great Britain History Civil War, 1642-1649 Early works to 1800 Scotland History Charles I, 1625-1649 Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Not in fact 'Leven's declaration and propositions ..'; consists, rather, of two letters, the first unsigned but dated "Dublin 12. April 1648"; the second dated and signed "Barwick 12 April, 1648. R.S:". A postscript is dated and signed: Barwick 12 April, 1648. R.G. Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018