

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996388748903316
Autore	Case Thomas <1598-1682.>
Titolo	Sensuality dissected; or, The epicure's motto opened, censured, improved [[electronic resource]] : in a sermon preached to divers citizens of London, born in the County of Kent, and to other noble persons and gentlemen of that county, upon their solemn meeting in Paul's Church, on the 9. of June 1657. // By Tho. Case, M.A. and rector of S. Giles in the Fields. Whereunto is annexed a declaration of the trustees, who receive and destribute the subscriptions and contributions of worty benefactors, for the maintaining of poor mens sons (born in that county) at the university
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed by T.N. for R. Gibbs, and are to be sold at his shop near the Rolls in Chancery-lane., 1657
Descrizione fisica	[36], 92, [16] p
Soggetti	Sermons, English - 17th century
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Annotation on Thomason copy: "June 19". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018