Note generali	Parallel French and English texts. The imprint is false; in fact printed in France, judging from the typography, and probably in Paris, where Gerbier was resident. "L'interprete de l'Academie pour les langues estrangeres, les sciences et nobles exercices", the main text in part 1, has separate dated title page; pagination and register are continuous. Part 2, "The interpreter of the academie for forrain languages, and all noble sciences, and exercises, concerning military architecture or fortifications", has separate dated title page, pagination, and register. "The interpreter of the academie, to the lovers of military architecture or fortifications", the main text in part 2, has separate divisional title, pagination, and register. Annotation on Thomason copy; roman numeral 'I' added to imprint date. Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
