

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996389115203316
Autore	Beaulieu Luke <1644 or 1645-1723.>
Titolo	The history of the Romish inquisition and inquisitors [[electronic resource]] : 1. Containing by what means and when it was first brought in and established, on whom the first storm fell. 2. Their manner of proceeding in it, relating to the judicial part in imprisoning, examining prisoners, and forcing them to a confession or abjuration of their religion, by several most horrid ways of tortures and exquisit torments. 3. Their manner of imposing and inflicting cruel pennance on very slight suspicions and rigor towards absolved penitents. 4. The methods the inquisitors take in their citations, visitations, and committing men and women to their loathsome dungeons, where many thousands perish with want and intollerable oppression. Published in this holy year of jubilee compared and ballanced with the large indulgences granted by the Church of Rome, and the severe prosecution of Protestants in the Romish Inquisition, 1700. Taken from their own authors, with some reflections on their barbarous and inhumane cruelty in the destruction of Protestants
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed for William Whitwood at the Rose and Crown in Little Britain, 1700
Descrizione fisica	[18], 250, [6] p
Soggetti	Inquisition - Italy Inquisition - Spain Torture - Spain Spain History Philip II, 1556-1598 Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Attributed to Luke Beaulieu. Cf. Wing (2nd ed., 1994). With an added engraved title page which reads: "The holy inquisition 1681 London printed for H: Brome". Title page canceled and replaced with bifolium bearing advertisement and cancel title page. Cf. ESTC. Table of contents and errata at end. Title within line border; initials. Reproduction of original in: Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library.

