1. Record Nr. UNISA996389325403316 By the King, a declaration [[electronic resource]]: James R. Whereas we Titolo find it requisite for Our service, that the forces, which we are obliged to maintain for the preservation of the peace of this Our kingdom,. London, : Printed by the Assigns of John Bill Deceas'd : And by Henry Pubbl/distr/stampa Hills, and Thomas Newcomb, Printers to the Kings most Excellent Majesty., 1685 Descrizione fisica 1 sheet ([1] p.) Altri autori (Persone) James, King of England, <1633-1701.> Soggetti Broadsides - England - London Soldiers - Legal status, laws, etc - England Lingua di pubblicazione Inglese Formato Materiale a stampa Livello bibliografico Monografia Note generali All forces in passing through a place are to paytheir quarters [sic] and not to use any threats or violence. Those injured to complain to superior officers, and if redress is denied, to the King. Offenders will be cashiered or punished. No quartering in private houses save by consent. Game is not to be disturbed. No money is to be exacted for quartering. --Steele. Title from caption title and first lines of text. At end of text: Given at Our court at Windsor the twenty fifth day of August 1685. In the first year of Our reign. Initial; Steele notation: to Our High; arms 101. Imperfect: copy at reel C11:3[8] reel is torn at lower edge with slight loss of text; C29:2[286] is tightly bound, with slight loss of text. Reproductions of the originals in the British Library. Sommario/riassunto eebo-0018