Autore	Briscoe John <fl. 1695.>
Titolo	An almanack for the year 1695/6 [[electronic resource]] : with severall tables shewing rates of purchasing annuities for 6, 10, or 20 years, &c. And in how many years the Bank of England may have all the money and purchase all the land in the kingdom. With an artificial scheme (never before known) for the subjects to be enriched by taxes ... with several resolutions concerning forging of titles whereby it plainly appears, that one man may cheat another of his estate, without doing him any wrong: very necessary for all free-holders and lawyers // written by Mr. John Briscoe, at his house in White Cross Alley in Middle Moor-fields, and sold and delivered by the author gratis in the lobby of the House of Commons
