

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996389630803316
Titolo	The present state of England Part III and part IV [[electronic resource]] : containing, I. An account of the riches, strength, magnificence, natural production, manufactures of this island, with an exact catalogue of the nobility, and their seats, &c. II. The trade and commerce with in it self, and with all countries traded to by the English, as at this day established, and all other matters relating to inland and marine affairs : supplying what is omitted in the two former parts, useful for natives and foreigners
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed for W. Whitwood, and sold by Edward Vize over against the Royal Exchange [sic] in Cornhil, 1683
Descrizione fisica	[8], 268 p
Soggetti	Nobility - Great Britain Armorial bookplates (Provenance)17th century.England Great Britain Description and travel Early works to 1800 Great Britain Commerce History 17th century
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Erroneously attributed to Edward Chamberlayne who wrote the three parts of "Angliae notitia". However, part 3 of this work is not the same as part 3 of "Angliae notitia" and, in fact, this work was intended to be a supplement to Chamberlayne's work. Cf. Wing (2nd ed., 1994). Bookplate for Worcester College on t.p. verso. Title within double line border, initials, ms. notes. Imperfect: tightly bound, stained with slight loss of text Reproduction of original in: Worcester College (University of Oxford). Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0121