Note generali	A compilation of translated material from a number of earlier writers, primarily Girolamo Cardano, but also including Mizauld, Bartholomew Anglicus, J.J. Wecker, and Albertus Magnus; the possibility exists that Hill originated some of the material himself. Cf. Hall, T.H. Old conjuring books, p. 41-42. First extant edition 1581, but evidence exists indicating editions in 1567 and 1568. Cf. Hall, p. 35-40. Signatures: A-D. Black letter. Tail-piece; initials; title vignette (candle burning in a bottle). D verso is blank. Imperfect: cropped, with loss of print. Reproduction of original in: University of Texas at Austin. Library.
