

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996389930103316
Autore	Panke John
Titolo	The fal of Babel [[electronic resource] ] : By the confusion of tongues directly proving against the Papists of this, and former ages; that a view of their writings, and bookes being taken; cannot be discerned by any man living, what they would say, or how be vnderstoode, in the question of the sacrifice of the masse, the reall presence or transubstantiation, but in explaining their mindes they fall vpon such termes, as the Protestants vse and allow. Further in the question of the Popes supremacy is shevved, how they abuse an authority of the auncient father St. Cyprian, a canon of the I Niceene counsell, and the ecclesiastical historie of Socrates, and Sozomen. And lastly is set downe a brieve of the sucession of Popes in the sea of Rome for these 1600 yeeres together; ... By Iohn Panke
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Printed at Oxford, : By Ioseph Barnes, 1608
Descrizione fisica	[34], 147, [3] p
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Running title reads: The fall of Babell. Some print faded and show-through and some pages marked; signatures A-D stained at foot. Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018