Autore	Ellis Edward, lover of peace and purity
Titolo	A sudden and cloudy messenger, with glimpses of great joy to the Israel of God [[electronic resource]] : Declaring the hastning of that day of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus in his saints, tending to a deliverance from spiritual and temporal captivity, but much sorrow, woe, and calamity, to the Lords, and his peoples enemies in England. Presented especially, to the waiters for this day of the Lord, to the gathered churches, Parliament, Army, City of London, and ministers of England. A spark from the altar, or a beame of the light of God, declaring the scattering of the gathered churches in England. A voice out of cloudy discoveries to the Army. A further warning to London, of the dreadful coming of the Lord God Almighty. A voice to high and low, shewing what the determination of the Lord seems to be on this laud. A warning to awaken all the Idol Shepherds in England, otherwise called ministers, with friendly advise to those in the ministry, that have the true spirituall life of Jesus brought forth in them. // By a lover of peace and purity, though appearing so terrible and dreadfull. Edward Ellis
