Sommario/riassunto	This is a collection of Bowne's most important sermons, some of which appeared in other collections. It covers a remarkably large number of aspects of religion and faith, and summarizes well the thought and achievements of this great preacher. The topics covered range from the role of Jesus Christ in religion and in our own lives, to the activities of the church, to Christianity as a doctrine, to the ways in which we can enjoy a healthy and successful life. The book will appeal to many,
