

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996390117203316
Autore	Matern John <1639 or 40-1680.>
Titolo	The testimony of that dear and faithful man, John Matern [[electronic resource]] : who had lived six years and faithfully served the Lord in his vocation in the family of C. T. now dwelling at Edmonton in Middlesex. Also, other blessed testimonies concerning him, and the truth itself; with something concerning his blessed condition in the time of his sickness, and when he was near his departure. With several testimonies of sensible children who had been under his tuition. Published that God may have his glory in preserving his faithful ones faithful to the end. A. P
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : printed, and are to be sold by Ben. Clark. in George-Yard in Lumbard-street, 1680
Descrizione fisica	[4], 32 p
Altri autori (Persone)	PatersonA., Quaker
Soggetti	Quakers - England Teachers - England Teacher-student relationships - England Witness bearing (Christianity)
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	A. P. = A. Paterson; "To the Reader" signed: A. Paterson. C. T. = Christopher Taylor. Testimonial signed: J. Matern, on p. 10. Includes letters signed by several of Matern's students, and by his employer C[hristopher]. T[aylor]. Attributed by Wing to A. Paterson. Wing gives title as: "A testimonial ..". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018