

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996390150903316
Autore	Mucklow William <1631-1713.>
Titolo	Tyranny and hypocrisy detected [[electronic resource]] : or, a further discovery of the tyrannical government, popish-principles, and vile practices of the now-leading Quakers. Being a defence of the letter, intituled, The spirit of the hat, against the deceitful, defective and railing Answer, called The spirit of Alexander, &c. With a challenge, to refer the judgment of matters of fact to the verdict of twelve impartial judges, equally chosen. Also, many of their letters, papers, and transactions among themselves are made publick; wherein they contradict one another, and attribute titles to George Fox, that are proper only to Christ
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed for Fr. Smith, at the Elephant and Castle in Cornhil, near the Royal Exchange, 1673
Descrizione fisica	72 p
Altri autori (Persone)	FoxGeorge <1624-1691.> MucklowWilliam <1631-1713.>
Soggetti	Society of Friends
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	By William Mucklow, author of The spirit of the hat. A reply to: Penn, William. The spirit of Alexander the copper-smith lately revived, now justly rebuk'd, or, An answer to a late pamphlet, intituled, The spirit of the hat, or the government of the Quakers. With order at end of text on appropriate Quaker dress, by George Fox. McAlpin Catalogue reports: Appended to his Spirit of the Hat: 1673, with continuous register, but separate pagination. Reprinted in 1700 with the title: "A bemoaning letter" (Wing M3033). Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018