

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996390176003316
Autore	Freize James
Titolo	Times present mercy, and Englands vvestern justice [[electronic resource]] : Am I become your enemy (persecuted, close imprisoned, and endeoured cruelly to be destroyed) because I tell you the truth, in presenting to your sight (and preventing bounden care) the slights of some camelions of these times, together with the uncessant cries of many distressed, oppressed, and of all the inslaved commons of England, for justice, according to the great charter of Englands liberty; exhibited formerly by many severall petitions unto the high Court of Parliament. Together with a letter unto the honorable Wil: Lenthall, Speaker to the House of Commons, with sundry other particulars. Published for the good and foresight of all the commons of England. This yeare of expected freedome, now, or never, or continued thraldome, now, and ever. 1647
Pubbl/distr/stampa	[London], : Printed this yeare of Englands jubilee, if justice be not bauked, nor mercy, 1647
Descrizione fisica	[2], 18 p
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	A series of petitions by James Freize and others; he signs A2r and other places. Place of publication from Wing. Reproduction of the original in the Henry E. Huntington Library and Art Gallery.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0113