

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996390290803316
Autore	Woodward Ezekias <1590-1675.>
Titolo	A light to grammar, and all other arts and sciences. Or, the rule of practise proceeding by the clue of nature, and conduct of right reason [[electronic resource]] : so opening the doore thereunto. The first part concerning grammar, the preparatories thereto; rules of practice through the same; clearing the method all along
Pubbl/distr/stampa	[London], : Printed at London by M. F. for Iohn Bartlet, at the signe of the gilt Cup, neere S. Austins gate in Pauls Churchyard, 1641
Descrizione fisica	[28], 97, [9], 160 p
Soggetti	English language - Grammar - Early modern, 1500-1700 Education
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	By Ezekias Woodward, who signs the dedication to King Charles I and both prefaces. 'A gate to sciences, opened by a naturall key' has a separate titlepage, with imprint: "Printed at London for Iohn Bartlet. 1641.", and separate pagination. The register is continuous. At bottom of p.156: "Finis". Pages 157-160 contain omissions "which are here inserted to the second part." Marginal notes. Reproduction of the original in the All Souls College Library, Oxford.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0004