

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996390311403316
Autore	Ford Emanuel
Titolo	The most pleasant history of Ornatus and Artesia [[electronic resource]] : shewing the tyrannical and wicked reign of Thæon, King of Phrigia, VVho having murdered his lawful sovereign, usurped the kingdom, and grievously opprest the people, was afterwards slain by one of his own servants. With the manner of his son Lenons falling in love with the fair Artesia; his several strange and unheard of plots, contrived to attain his desires, and the miseries she endured thereby, till by the prudence, valour, and fortitude of Ornatus, she was set at liberty. Also, how by the assistance of the King of Armenia, and the policy of Philastes, Ornatus recovered the kingdom, (to which he was right heir) and afterwards he and Artesia, being royally married together, crowned king and queen of Phrigia
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : printed by M. White, for J. Wright, J. Clark, W. Thackery, and Tho. Passenger, 1683
Edizione	[The eighth impression; exactly corrected and amended.]
Descrizione fisica	[6], 107, [1] p
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	By Emanuel Ford. First leaf blank. Reproduction of the original in the Magdalen College Library, Cambridge University.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0085