

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996390321203316
Titolo	The famous and delightful history of the golden eagle [[electronic resource]] : giving an account of how Albertus, King of Arragon, being at the point of death, was advised to procure the golden eagle, kept by the Queen of Ivyland, for his recovery: how his three sons went in search of that adventure, and what befel them on the way; how Innocentine the youngest, prevailed, and got the golden eagle, with the advice his horse gave him: how his two brothers robbed him of the eagle, and accused him to the King, for which he narrowly escaped death, being utterly disgraced, until the Queen arrived, who restored him to favour, and then married him, &c. with many other adventures, both pleasant and profitable. Licens'd and entered according to order
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : printed by and for W.O. and sold by the booksellers, [ca. 1700]
Descrizione fisica	[24] p. : ill. (woodcuts)
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Title page woodcut; woodcut illustrations throughout. Publication date estimated by Wing. Running title reads: The history of the golden eagle. Signatures: A-C. Print faded; illegible in places. Reproduction of the original in the Bodleian Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0014