

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996390480403316
Titolo	The actes of the disputacio[n] in the cowncell of the Empyre holden at Regenspurg [[electronic resource]] : that is to saye, all the artycles concernyng the Christen relygion both agreed and not agreed vpon: euen as they were propowned of the Emprour vnto the nobles of the Empyre, to be iudged, delybred and debated. Here thow hast also the sentence, cowncell and aduyse of the Emperor, of euery degre of the nobles of the Empyre and of the Legate of Rome concernyng these actys. And more ouer here be certen prefacys of Phylyp Melancton declaryng why certen popysssh artycles were reprouyd by the protestantys: and certe[n] other thinges also a registre whereof thou hast in the next syde of this leafe set forth by Martyne Bucere [et] Phylyp Melancton translated owt of Latyne into Englissh. By Mylys Couerdale. M.D.xlij
Pubbl/distr/stampa	[Antwerp, : Printed by the widow of C. Ruremond, 1542]
Descrizione fisica	[24], ccxl, ccxliij-cclxxvij, cclxxx-cclxxxij, [2] p., xl leaves
Altri autori (Persone)	GropperJohannes <1503-1559.> CoverdaleMiles <1488-1568.> BucerMartin <1491-1551.> MelanchthonPhilip <1497-1560.>
Soggetti	Reformation - Germany
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	A translation of: Acta colloquii in Comitii Imperii Ratisbonae habiti. The proceedings of the Diet of Ratisbon, 1541, partly written and probably compiled by Johannes Gropper; commonly known as the Ratisbon Book. Imprint from STC. "The testimonye and report which Eccius gaue and sent in to the cou[n]cel of those pri[n]cis which name them selues catholyk" (caption title) has separate register and foliation. Reproduction of the original in the British Library.

