Note generali	The text of the decree, dated Nov. 25, 1695, with title "In conventu D. Vice-Cancellarii ..." prelim. p. [3-4] This decree was not issued by The University of Oxford as an official document. This tract, in answer to Wm. Sherlock's "Modest examination of the authority and reasons of the late decree", has been attributed by Wing and Trinity College, Dublin, to Robert South. Bodleian, BM and McAlpin, as well as R. Wallace in his "Antitrinitarian Biography", 1850 I:344, have made no attributions. It appears Wing gave a separate number to South's answer to Sherlock and to the decree; however, both items appear in the same monograph with the decree appearing in the preliminary material of South's work. Another edition of the decree (O873) appears in some issues of South's work. Reproduction of original in Huntington Library. Entry for S4732 cancelled in Wing (2nd ed.).
