

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996390511603316
Autore	W. G
Titolo	England's jubilee and Rome's downfall [[electronic resource] ] : Being a prophesie delivered in the year of our Lord 1672. at Astracan, a populous city in Muscovy, in an oration made upon the burse or exchange to merchants of most nations of the universe; by the famous Joseph-Ben-Israel; commonly called, The wandering Jew: predicting in the desolation of Hungary, Poland, Germany, France, and other regions of the west; more especially Italy. And also the glorious propagation of the most holy Christian religion in its purity: the conversion of the Jews, and the flourishing condition of Denmark, Sweden, Muscovy, and other countries in the north; particularly, England and Scotland: whose King shall be the most renowned potentate in the world, and his dominions the sanctuary of all such as shall flee thither for refuge: and this to come to pass in the year of our Lord 1700. Communicated in a letter to a noble peer, as followeth
Pubbl/distr/stampa	[London, : s.n., printed MDCXCIX. [1699]]
Descrizione fisica	1 sheet (2 p.)
Soggetti	Prophecies
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Signed at end: W. G. Imprint from colophon. Reproduction of the original in the Bodleian Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0014