Sommario/riassunto	E-procurement has become accepted as a public procurement tool in Germany, as it offers proven potential for optimization and cost-savings. As of 1 July 2016, e-procurement will become mandatory. This book offers a detailed presentation of the legal framework and practical uses of e-procurement. It explains the advantages of internet-based procurement, describing common miscalculations and sources of error as well as ways to prevent them.
