

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996390954003316
Autore	Whetcombe Tristram
Titolo	The copy of a letter from Master Tristram Whitecombe, Major of Kingsale, in Ireland [[electronic resource]] : Dated the 21. of April 1642. To his brother Benjamin Whitecombe, merchant in London. Alderman Plurie of Gloucester mooved the house that this letter might bee printed, whereupon it was ordered the 26. of April, to be published. It is this day ordered by the House of Commons, that the ministers of each several parish give publike thanks to God for the good successe it hath pleased him to grant the English against the Rebels. Hen. Elsing, Cler. Com. D. Parl
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed for Ioseph Hunscott, 1642
Descrizione fisica	[8] p
Soggetti	Ireland History Rebellion of 1641 Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Concerns the proceedings of the rebels and English forces. The name, "Tristram Whitecombe" has been altered in ms. to read "Whittecumbe" or "Whitiecumbe". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018