

1. Record Nr.	UNISA996390957503316
Autore	Bernard Nicholas <d. 1661.>
Titolo	A letter sent from Dr. Barnard, a reverend divine, and parson of Tredagh to Sr. Simon Harcourts lady in Westminster, London March 18. 1641 [[electronic resource] ] : And printed by the appointment of the right worshipfull Sr. Francis Knowles knight a member of the honourable House of Commons. Wherein more particularly is contained divers very memorable passages twixt the Kings armies, and the rebels in the towne of Tredagh and the countrey round about. Which may give comfort and satisfaction to all His Maiesties good subiects here in England to see the powerfull finger of the Almighty in preserving and giving victory to, as it were, a handfull of men, against a multitude of bloud-thirsty rebels
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, : Printed for Nathanael Butter, 1641. [i.e. 1642]
Descrizione fisica	[2], 6 p
Soggetti	Ireland History Rebellion of 1641 Early works to 1800
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Thomason copy bound with items from 1642. A variant has the second comma in line 2 of title after "reverend" instead of "divine". Reproduction of the original in the British Library.
Sommario/riassunto	eebo-0018